

Text: Psalm 46

God is Our Security

- Turmoil is a _____ part of life.
- We can face turmoil _____.
- Our attitude is best shape by _____.

Where to Find God's Help

- We find God's help in _____.
- God is actively bringing _____.

Be Still and Know

- Until the Day God stills earthly chaos, we must find Him _____.
- We must recognize how _____ we are.

Life Enrichment

What about today's sermon challenged, disturbed, or encouraged you?

- As a child, what was your source of security? Did you have a blanket, stuffed animal, or toy that gave you comfort?
- How did your idea of security change as you moved into adulthood? What were some of the sources of security you tried?
- In what ways do you think trying times challenge our sense of security? What secure items has the current crisis challenged?
- Why do you think the Psalmist does not focus on human attitudes, ingenuity, or solutions as means of security?
- When we focus on the truths about God found in Psalm 46:1, how do our attitudes and feelings change?
- Where do we find God's help? How do we access it?
- Why do you think we want quick solutions to our problems? What might God be doing/teaching while we wait for His deliverance?
- How did Pastor Dave's description of "Be still and know" differ from what you knew previously?
- In what ways are you attempting to find God in the noise? Have you been successful?
- When you acknowledge that you are powerless and God is powerful, what happens to fear and worry?