The Magnificent Journey II Corinthians 5:1-10

	Of boys, bicycles, and airplanes. "What were they thinking!"
	God began with a pre-creation plan. Before day one of creation, he knew Not only would He create this earth as we know it, but he would create it with the capacity of change, change that would not always be
	As always, we must allow Scripture to speak to the dilemmas, enigmas, and paradoxes around usAnd when we see things from God's perspective, we catch a vision of our as human beings. Here is what Scripture reveals:
1.	Our present existence is affirmed in our eternal destiny
	(1-4).
	Paul viewed life as a tent, destroyed by the irrepressible forces of life, aging, disease, and decay "we do not wish to be unclothedwe wish to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling"
	Vulnerability giving way to the eternal!
2.	Vulnerability giving way to the eternal!
2.	Vulnerability giving way to the eternal!  Our future destiny fulfills our eternal design.
