What about today's sermon challenged, disturbed, or encouraged you?

- If you had to write a letter to a group of people that you knew were upset with you, how would you end it? Would you be more inclined to be forceful or hopeful? Why?
- Why do you think Paul concludes 2 Corinthians the way he does?
- What can we learn about reconciling relationships from the way Paul concludes this letter?
- Why do you think Paul pictures the presence of God as loving and peace producing?
- Why do you think that the ongoing presence of God within the church determined by our behavior toward each other?
- Look at Paul's five commands (v. 11) and place them in priority from most to least needed in today's church. Why did you place them in that order?
- Why do you think Paul summarizes what it means to be a Christian with grace, love, and fellowship?
- What are some ways that we can embody God's grace, love, and fellowship to the unredeemed people we know? How can we do that this week?
