

Paying Attention Together

September 12, 2021

Text – Revelation 2:7, 11, 17, 29; 3:6, 13, 22

Paying Attention to the Spirit Together

- Listening to the Spirit forms our _____.
- Listening to the Spirit improves our _____.
- We listen together when we _____.

Why do We Need to Pay Attention Together?

- Jesus _____.
- Our _____ is being lived out _____.
- The surrounding culture is _____.

What are the Goals of Paying Attention Together?

- If we listen together, we will be _____.
- If we listen together, we will discover what God is _____.
- Settling in for the _____.

Life Enrichment

What about today's teaching challenged, disturbed, or encouraged you?

- Do you ever struggle with time? How?
- Why do you think Jesus repeats the command to “hear” seven times in Revelation chapters two and three?
- For the church, what are some possible dangers of not listening to the Spirit?
- How might paying attention to the Spirit shape our congregation's future?
- How does listening to the Spirit change our character, our outlook on life, and our perspective on our surrounding culture?
- What is the primary way that Christians can pay attention to the Spirit together? What are some reasons we are weak in this area?
- Why do we need to pay attention to the Spirit together?
- What are some ways that our future is being lived out now? How can corporate listening help us address the needs of a lost culture?
- What do you think God is already doing in our community? How can we join Him in that work?