

Pentecost: Reversing Babel

April 21, 2024

Text: Genesis 11:1-9; Acts 2:1-13

The Babel Pentecost Connection

- The first connecting point is the _____.
- The second connecting point is the _____.
- The third connecting point is a _____.
- The fourth connecting point is the _____.

The Reversal of Babel

- _____ miracle of language.
- Pentecost's strategy of _____.

What the Reversal Means for Us

- The reversal amplifies the _____.
- The reversal amplifies the _____.
- The reversal amplifies _____.

Life Enrichment

What about today's teaching challenged, disturbed, or encouraged you?

- When have you run into communication problems at home, work, on a vacation, etc.? How did you resolve the issue? What did you learn?
- What are the ways that the Tower of Babel (Gen 11:1-9) and Pentecost (Ac 2:1-13) are similar?
- How are Babel and Pentecost different?
- Of the four connecting points mentioned in this week's teaching, which do you view as most important? Why?
- How is Pentecost a reversal of Babel?
- Why do you think that God's presence, the language miracle, the scattering of people, and spiritual warfare are such important parts of Pentecost?
- According to this week's teaching, what are the fundamental actions in spiritual warfare? How does this agree with or differ from what you've heard about spiritual warfare in the past?
- Why do you think that the presence of God is such an important component of the church's mission? How can we grow in our experience and demonstration of God's presence as a church and as individuals in the community?