

Our Ever-present Savior

April 7, 2024

Text: John 21:1-14

Distraction and Inadequacy Blind Us to Christ's Presence

- Distraction and inadequacy cast _____.

- No matter how we distract ourselves, _____.

The Grace of Divine Partnership

- Attempting God's work _____ leads to failure.

- Divine partnership _____ when we listen to Christ's voice and obey His direction.

Find Lasting Healing

- We know what the Lord _____.

- The head of God's new family _____.

Life Enrichment

What about today's teaching challenged, disturbed, or encouraged you?

- What has been your best time fishing, hunting, or camping? What are your favorite foods cooked over a campfire?
- What do you think the seven disciples were talking about while they sat by the lakeshore?
- Why do you think Jesus was unrecognizable to so many of His followers after the resurrection (Lk 24:16, 31; 20:14; 21:4)?
- How do stress, distractions, and our personal inadequacies prevent us from seeing Jesus in our circumstances?
- What does the failed fishing expedition teach us about partnering with God (Jn 21:3-6)? What is our responsibility? What is God's responsibility?
- What do you think Peter was feeling after his denial of Christ, the crucifixion, and resurrection? Why was this fireside breakfast so important to Peter's healing (Jn 21:1-14)?
- How does knowing that Jesus healed Peter's regret and shame help you deal with your personal struggles?