

One Out of Ten

November 24, 2024

Text: Luke 17:11-19, NIV

Misery Loves Company

- Common misery erases social _____.
- Misery makes people spiritually _____.

Seeing and Doing

- A look full of _____.
- Act as if you've _____.

Faith Produces Gratitude

- The distinction between _____.
- Faith _____.
- The grateful heart experiences a taste of _____.

Life Enrichment

What about today's teaching challenged, disturbed, or encouraged you?

- What would make you shout for joy at the top of your lungs? What would make you fall flat on your face in reverent awe?
- How does this week's text reveal Luke's focus on society's outsiders?
- What do you think it would have been like to be a Leper in ancient Israel?
- In what ways did the common misery of the ten lepers erase all other distinctions? How might going through adversity make a person more spiritually insightful?
- What do you think Jesus saw when He looked at the lepers? Why is it important that He "saw" them?
- Why do you think Jesus didn't pray for healing, lay hands on, or simply declare the lepers healed?
- Why do you think only one of the ten returned to thank Jesus? What was significant about him being a Samaritan?
- How does the Samaritan leper's gratitude demonstrate a deeper faith than the others? What was the result of his faith?
- What do you need to thank God for this week? With whom will you share your thanksgiving?